

Hello → February

Cherokee Garden Condominium Association, Inc.

2022

Dear Owner's

February is here and the cold weather and snow continues. Natural gas prices rose after our budget was established last summer so we are over budget on heating gas again last month. Fortunately, we are a little ahead of budget in a few other categories so we are still close to budget overall year to date.

Snow or no snow, the staff is busy working outdoors. When the weather allows the staff is focusing on interior projects. We have also been in the process of changing valves on common area plumbing and heating systems in the older buildings, because over time the seals begin to fail with age and the valves don't always hold due to age.

Our office has received a number of questions about the Golf Course renovation project being done next door at Cherokee Country Club. With the arrival of a fleet of heavy equipment, the renovation is really beginning to ramp up. Cherokee has removed nearly 400 trees, many were ash trees suffering from ash borers. There is a lot of excitement with this project since it is the first wholesale renovation since it opened 60 years ago. When finished, the course will be more of an open, links type course. There will still be some trees, but it will be much more open than in the past. This will be a massive undertaking and has been very interesting to watch the progress. When completed, this will be a beautiful top quality golf course which should add value to our development.

There are also plans to make improvements and changes in the Country Club Clubhouse, but they plan to keep the Sports Lounge restaurant open during the renovation. Hours are limited in the winter, but homeowners are still welcome to dine there now. We will post the latest information on our website at cherokeegardencondos.com so check there for hours and menu information (under About, then Cherokee Amenities).

The new course layout is being designed to eventually host Steve Stricker's Senior PGA Tournament, the American Family Insurance Championship. The new course will be called TPC Wisconsin and is slated to open in 2023.

Stay warm and have a great month!

♥ Happy Valentines Day ♥
